

Moseley's Art Work Selected for Online Exhibition

09.22.2009

Southwestern Oklahoma State University Associate Professor Dr. Warren Moseley has had five art pieces selected for the 11th annual Abstraction International Online Juried Art Exhibition.

Moseley is a faculty member in the SWOSU Department of Accounting, Computer Science and Entrepreneurship.

Moseley's pieces include:

- Trouble in M14
- Hot Gas and Dust
- M14 Grandeur
- Nuclear Fusion in M14
- Stars are Born

The exhibition will open worldwide on October 1 at www.UpstreamPeopleGallery.com and be on view through September 30, 2010. The show will be featured for one month and then moved to the "Archive" section of the web site.

Moseley's work was selected from 350 entries from various parts of the world.
